Rome & Juliet Character Packs

Introduction to main characters of Romeo and Juliet

Grade Level: 9th Grade

Purpose: To introduce students to the characters in Romeo and Juliet. Prepare them for Romeo and Juliet and remove anxiety about classical language. This lesson should be used in the classroom before the students have begun to read the play.

Objectives: Students will:

1. Work in small groups and negotiate creative choices
2. Become familiar with characters from Romeo and Juliet
3. Use problem solving and critical thinking skills to form hypotheses about characters from Romeo and Juliet

Materials Needed: 5 Boxes or large manila envelopes, filled with items that will represent the characters (or pictures of the actual objects.) Also inside the box are lines of dialogue that each of the characters speak. See last page for how to create Character Boxes/Envelopes. You will also need:

5 pieces of paper

5 pens or pencils

5 pieces of paper - each piece of paper has written in bold these character's names -, Rome, Juliet, Nurse, Friar Lawrence and Mercutio – This is the answer key

Chalkboard, Whiteboard or Large Pad

Prior Knowledge: No prior knowledge is necessary for this lesson.

Standards Addressed:

NYC Blueprint for the Arts:

4. Comprehends as well as critique
5. Value evidence
6. Come to understand other perspectives and cultures

Duration: 30 - 45 minutes

Procedure:

1. Before class make the character boxes. Instructions and items needed on last page.
2. Before class make the answer key this is on 5 separate pieces of paper. To make this write down each of the characters names. You will have one page for Romeo, Juliet, Nurse, Friar Lawrence and Mercutio.
3. Divide Class up into 5 groups and hand out character packs.
4. Give each group a piece of paper and pencil.
5. Tell the group to pick a group presenter.
6. Ask the groups to open up their box; and examine the contents of it.
7. Ask them to write down the clues this box gives them about the person who owns these items. To get them started use some of these questions: ( Give them around 10-15 mins for this.)
  1. Does this person have a job? (If so where do they work?)
  2. Are they married? Are they in love?
  4. Look at the line of dialogue on the strip of paper, does this tell you anything about the character?
  5. Make sure to ask each group if they understand what the quote is saying, if not assist with helping each group decipher the quote.
  6. What do you imagine their personality is like?
8. After viewing the packs for 15 minutes have a class discussion. Start with group 1 ask them if they know who their character is.
Write down their answer on the board. Ask the character box group leader to tell the class some of the speculations that they have made about their character. Write the character name and their speculations on the board.
9. Repeat this with all of the groups. Then show all groups the answers, and discuss who guessed correctly?
10. Have each student journal or free write- on these questions: What would they like to learn about these characters? What do they hope to discover upon reading the play?

Modifications: If you cannot find items for boxes, use pictures of items.

Assessment/Reflection:

What questions do they have about Romeo and Juliet? What do they hope to discover upon reading the play?
